Aboriginal Cultural Safety Training for the Victorian Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) Sector 2015

VACCHO is running 17 free workshops in Victoria for the AOD sector workforce.

Our workshop will be tailored to address the needs of the various roles within the AOD workforce, including care and recovery coordination, counselling, residential, non-residential withdrawal and intake and assessment.

Our workshop topics will include:

- What is cultural safety and how is it demonstrated in practice
- Complex mental health considerations in Aboriginal communities
- Practice tips, tools and resources around intervention, terminology, communication, culturally safe care coordination and inclusion of family in decision making
- Victorian Aboriginal services: building effective networks and relationships, establishing referral pathways, scope and the role of Aboriginal Health Workers, Aboriginal Hospital Liaison Officers and Aboriginal Alcohol and Other Drug workers
